Appointment of Finance Director

Thomson Intermedia (AIM: THN), the media insight group, has appointed Michael Uzielli as Group Finance Director with effect from 1 April 2007.

Michael Robin Uzielli, aged 36, brings a broad range of operational and financial management experience having worked initially in the City and then for six years at British Airways.

He qualified at Deloitte & Touche before joining the corporate finance department of Schroders in 1996, now part of Citigroup. Between 2001 and 2003 he worked in the British Airways Investment and Joint Ventures unit before becoming Finance Manager for Gatwick & the UK Regional Airports. For the last three years he has been Finance Director of AIRMILES; within this role he was also responsible for a number of operational and infrastructure activities.

David Trendle, the current Finance Director, will be leaving the Board on 31 March 2007. He has agreed to assist the Group until the end of April to cover the announcement of the second interim results for the 12 months ended 31 January 2007.

Michael Higgins, Chairman of Thomson Intermedia commenting:

"I am delighted that Michael Uzielli is joining us. He brings substantial experience of operational financial management from AIRMILES, together with a broader corporate understanding from his six years with British Airways and background in the City."

"The Board wishes to express its thanks to David Trendle for the significant contribution he has made over the past five and a half years. It has been a period of substantial development including the successful acquisition of billets."

In the last five years Michael Uzielli was a director of Air Miles Travel Promotions Ltd. No further disclosures are required to be made under Schedule 2, paragraph (g) of the AIM Rules.
